Before commencing pupillage, Olivia worked as the Chambers Paralegal at a leading London common law set, where she supported members across a broad range of practice areas including clinical negligence, personal injury, family, financial crime, and inquests and inquiries.

Olivia also gained experience as a Senior Caseworker and Team Leader at a national law firm, where she managed a publicly funded caseload encompassing housing and care-related public law. Olivia has experience working for vulnerable clients, including victims of sexual and domestic abuse and individuals with high-level needs.

Olivia graduated with an undergraduate degree in Jurisprudence from the University of Oxford, before undertaking a Master of Laws in Public International Law at Universiteit Leiden. Olivia was later awarded the Lord Denning Scholarship from the Honourable Society of Lincoln's Inn during her Bar Course studies.
