Charlie Stonehill accepts instructions across Chambers' core areas of practice.

He joined Chambers in January 2026 after successfully completing his pupillage under the supervision of Adam Dawson (Civil), Kate Lamont (Family), Eleanor Mawrey(Crime), and Holly Tibbits (Second Six).

Before joining Deka Chambers, Charlie worked as self-employed County Court Advocate, where he received daily instructions across a wide caseload, including possession, bankruptcy, civil applications and procedural hearings, and small claims trials.

Charlie was also a paralegal assisting in the Phone Hacking litigation.

In his spare time Charlie participates in various sports, attends live sport, music performances, theatrical productions, and enjoys good food.
