Charlotte Davies began her career at the bar in London, where she practised for a number of years before relocating to Cornwall.

Her practice areas include personal injury; credit hire; property; contract and commercial; bankruptcy and insolvency; licensing matters, and general common law. Charlotte takes on cases at all levels, and regularly travels to courts around the country.

Charlotte has a busy specialist inquest practice, having represented all types of Interested Persons, including at Article 2 and jury inquests. She regularly appears in high profile inquests, many of which have involved Leading Counsel.

Charlotte sits as a Deputy District Judge and as a First Tier Tribunal Judge within the Health, Education and Social Care Chamber. As a Tribunal Judge Charlotte hears appeals on behalf of patients detained in psychiatric units under the Mental Health Act 1983. She is the author of "A Practical Guide to the Mental Health Tribunal" published by Law Brief Publishing.

Charlotte is on the steering committee of the Western Circuit Women's Forum, heading up the mentoring programme, and was a 2020 Social Mobility Advocate for the Bar Council.
